

National Award to TIFAC for KIRAN-IPR, WOS-C Scheme (now WISE Internship in IPR)

TIFAC has been awarded Nari Shakti Puraskar 2015 (Rani Lakshmbai Award) by the Hon'ble President of India for its programme KIRAN-IPR being implemented by PFC- TIFAC for women empowerment in the area of R&D and for its work of training Women Scientists in the area of IPR thereby creating 10% of active patent agents in the country through this scheme. Prof Prabhat Ranjan, ED TIFAC received the award.

(ED TIFAC Receiving Award)

Ministry of Women and Child Development gives away the Award to Institutions and Individuals for their contribution to the society for women empowerment in the country on International Women's Day. TIFAC was awarded under the institution category for its work for KIRAN-IPR. The Award consists of a citation and a cash prize of rupees two lakhs. Hon'ble Prime Minister met all the awardees and interacted about their contributions.

(PM Interacting with Awardees)